We are so grateful that we chose (Happy) Helen and her team to assist us in selling our late parents' property recently. Helen's kindness, respect and advice has been very much appreciated during the whole process of preparing our much-loved family home for sale. Helen has been very generous with her time and her solid sales record and extensive knowledge of the market assured us that we were in very good hands. Over many years, Helen had a long, genuine friendship with our parents - they would have been delighted that the sale of their "forever" home was handled with such care. We highly recommend Helen and her team.

Helen and the whole Happy Real Estate team were absolutely fantastic through our whole purchasing journey. Helen understood the type of property we were looking for and knew which property would suit our needs. Helen's friendly nature and client focus allows her and her team to really suit buyers to sellers and I would recommend her to anyone looking for a home.
